

Session

Agile Unpacked is a punchy and interactive executive briefing session designed for Leadership Teams wanting to understand about Enterprise Agile transformation. From company readiness to operating model design, ways of working and leadership behaviours to critical success factors, Mark Redgrave condenses five years of learning into 2hrs of discussion - bringing leaders up to speed with this new way of working that has been adopted by some of the most forward-thinking companies across the globe.

Mark Redgrave is a Partner at /shift and has worked closely with the Leadership Teams at Spark, ASB and The Warehouse Group during their recent Agile Transformations.

A former CMO, Mark has spent the past 5 years in full-time roles as Tribe Lead and Agile COE Lead, helping some of New Zealand's most important companies to move to a fully Agile operating model. With first-hand experience across telco, banking and retail, Mark has unique insights into the who, what, when and how of successful Agile Transformation.

Contents

PART 1 - Agile Readiness

- The journey for your Board and Executive Team
- The meaning of being truly 'change-able'
- Gearing up for the critical design phase

PART 2 - How Agile Works

- Introducing Tribes, Squads and Chapters
- The importance of key roles in the new organisation
- Quarterly planning and the QBR process

PART 3 - Critical Success Factors

- The real difference-makers
- The 3 golden rules of Agile transformation

Booking

Please contact us to get pricing for your session.
You are welcome to record the session for your internal use.

The session is most effective face-to-face, but can be also done remotely. To book your briefing, please contact:

mark@shift-transform.com